From: The Cleveland Museum of Art
Public Relations Department
421-7340

For: FINE ARTS Magazine advertisement
March 27, 1966 issue
Attention: Mr. Rost Warden

THE REQUIEM by Mozart will be the annual Lenten concert at St. Paul's Church, Fairmount and Coventry, Sunday, March 27, 1966 at 4:00 p.m. The St. Paul's Church Choir will perform with members of The Cleveland Orchestra conducted by Walter Blodgett. Soloists are Gretchen Garnett, Carol Stout, Leonard Moss, and Arthur Hamm. The concert is presented by The Cleveland Museum of Art. Admission is free.

Labelling material for cut to go along with ad is: Christ on the Cross between Two Thieves, engraving by Jean Duvet, French, The Cleveland Museum of Art.